3. (A) The Authorized Share Capital of the Company shall be as specified in the Memorandum of Association.
- (B) (I) The Company may from time to time, by ordinary resolution increase the Share Capital by such sum, to be divided into shares of such amount, as may be specified in the resolution.
- (II) (1) Where at the time after the expiry of two years from the formation of the Company or at any time after the expiry of one year from the allotment of shares in the Company made for the first time after its formation, whichever is earlier, it is proposed to increase the subscribed capital of the Company by allotment of further shares either out of the unissued capital or out of the increased share capital then:
 - (a) Such further shares shall be offered to the persons who at the date of the offer, are holders of the equity shares of the Company, in proportion, as near as circumstances admit, to the capital paid up on those shares at the date.
 - (b) Such offer shall be made by a notice specifying the number of shares offered and limiting a time not being less than fifteen days from the date of the offer and the offer if not accepted, will be deemed to have been declined.
 - (c) The offer aforesaid shall be deemed to include a right exercisable by the person concerned to renounce the shares offered to them in favour of any other person and the notice referred to in sub clause (b) hereof shall contain a statement of this right. PROVIDED THAT the Directors may decline, without assigning any reason to allot any shares to any person in whose favour any member may, renounce the shares offered to him.

★ Amended by Special Resolution passed at 17th A.G.M. of the Company held on 29.09.2008

- (d) After expiry of the time specified in the aforesaid notice or on receipt of earlier intimation from the person to whom such notice is given that he declines to accept the shares offered, the Board of Directors may dispose off them in such manner and to such person(s) as they may think most beneficial to the Company.
- (2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-clause (1) thereof, the further shares aforesaid may be offered to any persons (whether or not those persons include the persons referred to in clause (a) of sub-clause (1) hereof) in any manner whatsoever.
 - (a) If a special resolution to that effect is passed by the Company in General Meeting, or
 - (b) Where no such special resolution is passed, if the votes cast (whether on a show of hands or on a poll as the case may be) in favour of the proposal contained in the resolution moved in that general meeting (including the casting vote, if any, of the chairman) by the members who, being entitled to do so, vote in person, or, where proxies are allowed, by proxy, exceed the votes, if any, cast against the proposal by members, so entitled and voting and the Central Government is satisfied, on an application made by the Board of Directors in this behalf that the proposal is most beneficial to the Company
- (3) Nothing in sub-clause (c) of (1) hereof shall be deemed:
 - (a) To extend the time within which the offer should be accepted; or
 - (b) To authorize any person to exercise the right of renunciation for the second time, on the ground that the person in whose favour the renunciation was first made has declined to take the shares comprised in the renunciation.
- (4) Nothing in this Article shall apply to the increase of the subscribed capital of the Company caused by the exercise of an option attached to the debenture issued or loans raised by the Company:
 - (i) To convert such debentures or loans into shares in the Company; or
 - (ii) To subscribe for shares in the Company (whether such option is conferred in these Articles or otherwise)

PROVIDED THAT the terms of issue of such debentures or the terms of such loans include a term providing for such option and such term

 - A) To give effect to any such sale the Board may authorize some person to transfer the shares sold to the purchaser thereof.
 - B) The purchaser shall be registered as the shareholder of the shares comprised in any such transfer.
 - C) The purchaser shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the sale.
 - D) The proceeds of the sale shall be received by the Company and applied in payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable.
 - E) The residue, if any shall, subject to a like lien for sums not presently payable as existed upon the shares before the sale, be paid to the person entitled to the shares at the date of the sale.
19. No member shall exercise any voting rights in respect of any shares registered in his name on which any calls or other sums presently payable by him, have not been paid or in regard to which the Company has, and has exercised any right of lien.

FORFEITURE OF SHARES

 - A) If a member fails to pay any call or installment, on the day appointed for payment thereof, the Board may at any time thereafter during such times as any part of the call or installment remains unpaid, serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or installments as is unpaid, together with any interest which may have occurred.
 - B) The notice aforesaid shall.
 - (i) Name a further day (not earlier than the expiry of fourteen days from the date of service of notice) on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made; and
 - (ii) State that in event of non-payment on or before the day so named the shares in respect of which the call made will be liable to be forfeited.
 - C) If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share in respect of which the notice has been given may, at any time thereafter, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the board to that effect.
 - A) A forfeited share may be sold or otherwise disposed of in such manner as the Board thinks fit
 - B) At any time before a sale or disposal as aforesaid the Board, may cancel the forfeiture on such terms as it thinks fit.
22.
 - A) A person whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of the forfeited shares, but shall, notwithstanding the forfeiture, remain liable to pay to the Company all monies, which, at the date of forfeiture, were presently payable by him to the Company in respect of the shares.
 - B) The liability of such person shall cease, if and when the Company shall have received the payment in full of all such monies in respect of the shares.

23. A) A duly verified declaration in writing that, the declarant is a Director, the Manager or the Secretary of the Company, and that a share in the Company has been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration shall be conclusive evidence of facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share.
- B) The Company may receive the consideration if any given for the share on any sale or disposal thereof and may execute a transfer of the share in favour of the person to whom the share is sold or disposed of.
- C) The transferee shall thereupon be registered as the holder of share.
- D) The transferee shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, if any, nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale, or disposal of the share.
24. A) The provisions of these Regulations as to forfeiture shall apply in the case of non-payment of any sum which by the terms of issue of a share, become payable at a fixed time, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.
- B) The forfeiture of share shall involve the extinction of all interest in and also of all claims and demands against the Company in respect of the share, and all other rights incidental to the share, except only such of those rights as by these Articles are expressly saved.
25. The provisions of the above clauses shall, to the extent applicable, cover forfeiture of Debentures.

TRANSFER AND TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

26. A) The instrument of transfer on any share in the Company shall be executed by or on behalf of both the transferor and transferee. The transferor shall be deemed to remain a holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register of members in respect thereof.
- B) Shares in Company shall be transferred in the form prescribed by the Companies (Central Government's) General Rules and Forms 1956. The Company shall not charge any fees for registration of transfer. The provisions of the Act for the time being in force shall be complied with in respect of all transfer of shares and registration thereof.
27. Subject to the provisions of the Act, and section 22A of the Securities Contracts (Regulation) Act, 1956 the Directors may in their absolute and unqualified discretion decline to register any transfer of shares, without assigning any reason thereof. The Directors may also decline to recognize any instrument of transfer unless it is accompanied by the certificate(s) of the share to which it relates and such other evidence as the Directors may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer. If the Directors refuse to register at a transfer of any shares, they shall, within two months after the date on which the transfer was lodged with the Company send to the transferee and the transferor notice of the refusal, provided that the registration of a transfer shall not be refused on the ground of the transferor, being either alone or jointly with any other person indebted to the Company on any account whatsoever except a lien on the share.

28. The Board may also refuse to register a transfer when any statutory prohibition or any attachment or prohibitory order of a competent authority restrains the Board from transferring the shares out of the name of the transferor or when a transferor objects to the transfer, provided he serves, on the Company within a reasonable time a prohibitory order of a court of competent jurisdiction.
29. Every instrument of transfer shall be left at the premises designated by the Board for this purpose of registration, accompanied by the certificate of the share to be transferred or if no such certificate is in existence, by the letter of allotment of the share and such other evidence as the Board may require to prove the title of the transferor or his right to transfer the share.
30. The registration of transfers may be suspended at such times and for such periods as the Board may from time to time determine.
Provided that such registration shall not be suspended for more than forty-five days in any year and provisions of the Act shall be complied with.
31. A) On the death of a member, the survivors or survivor where the member was a joint holder, and his legal representatives where he was a sole holder shall be the only person recognized by the Company as having any title to his interest in the shares.
- B) Nothing in Clause (A) shall release the estate of the deceased joint holder from any liability in respect of any share, which had been jointly held by him or other persons.
32. A) Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or insolvency of a member may, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time properly as required by the Board and subject as here-in-after provided, elect, either:
- (i) To be registered himself as holder of the share, or
- (ii) To make such transfer of the share as the deceased or insolvent member could have made
- B) The Board shall, in either case, have the same right to decline or suspend registration, as it would have had, if the deceased or insolvent member has transferred the shares before his death or insolvency.
33. A) If the person so becoming entitled shall elect to be registered as holder of the shares by himself, he shall deliver or send to the Company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects.
- B) If the person aforesaid shall elect to transfer the share he shall testify his election by executing a transfer of the share.
- C) All the limitations, restrictions and provisions of these regulations relating to the right to transfer and the registration of transfer of shares shall be applicable to any such notice or transfer as aforesaid as if the death or insolvency of the member had occurred and the notice or transfer signed by that member.

34. A) A person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the holder shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share except that He shall not, before being registered as member in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the Company.

Provided that the Board may at any time give notice requiring any such person to elect either to register himself or to transfer the share, and if the notice is not complied with within ninety day's the Board may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends, bonuses or other moneys, payable in respect of the share until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

- B) In case of transfer or transmission of shares or other marketable securities where the Company has not issued any certificates and where such shares or securities are being held in an electronic and fungible form in a depository, the provisions of the Depositories Act, 1996 shall apply.

- C) Dematerialisation of shares:

A Document purporting to be a copy of a resolution of the Board or an extract from the minutes of a meeting of the board which is certified as such in accordance with the provisions of the last preceding article, shall be conclusive evidence in favour of all persons dealing with the company upon the faith thereof that such resolution has been duly passed or as the case may be, that such extract is true and accurate record of a duly constituted meeting of the Board.

DIVIDENDS AND RESERVE

97. The Company in General Meeting may declare dividends but no dividend shall exceed the amount recommended by the Board.
98. The Board may from time to time pay to the Members such interim dividends as appear to it to be justified by the profits of the Company.
 - A) the Board may, before recommending any dividend, set aside out of the profits of the Company such sums as it thinks proper as a reserve or reserves which shall at the discretion of the Board be applicable for any purpose to which the profits of the Company may be properly, applied including provision for meeting contingencies or for equalizing dividends and pending such application, may at the like discretion, either be employed in the business of the Company or be invested in such investments as the Board may from time to time, think fit.
 - B) The Board may also carry forward any profits, which it may think prudent not to divide without setting them aside as a reserve.
100.
 - A) Subject to the rights of the persons, if any, entitled to a share with special rights as to dividends, all dividends shall be declared and paid according to amounts paid or credited as paid on the shares in respect where of the dividend is paid, but if and so long as the holding is paid up on any of the shares in the Company, dividends may be declared and according to the amounts of the shares.
 - B) No amount paid or credited as paid on a Share in advance of calls shall be treated for the purpose of this regulation as paid on the shares.
 - C) All dividends shall be apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid or credited as paid on the shares during any portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid, but if any share is issued on terms providing that it shall rank for dividend as from a particular date such share shall rank for dividend accordingly.
101. The Board may deduct from any dividend payable to any member all sums of money if any, presently payable by him to the Company on account of calls or otherwise in relation to the shares of the Company.
102.
 - A) Any General Meeting declaring a dividend or bonus may direct payment of such Dividend or bonus wholly or partly by the distribution of specific assets and the Board shall give effect to the resolution of the meeting.

- B) Where any difficulty arises in regard to such distribution, the Board may settle the same as it think expedient, and in particular may issue fractional certificates, and fix the value for distribution of such specific assets or any part thereof and may determine that cash payments shall be made to any member upon the footing of the value so fixed in order to adjust the rights of all parties, and may vest any such specific assets in trustees as may seem expedient to the Board.
103. A) Any dividend, interest or other moneys payable in cash in respect of shares may be paid by cheques or warrants through the post directed to the registered address of the holder or in case of Joint holders to the registered address of that one of the joint holders who is first named on the register of members or to such person and to such address as the holder or joint holders may in writing direct.
- B) Every such cheque or warrant shall be made payable to the order of the person to whom it is sent.
104. Any one of the two or more joint holders of a share may give effectual receipts for any dividends, bonuses or other moneys payable in respect of such share.
105. Notice of any dividend that may have been declared shall be given to the persons entitled to share therein in the manner mentioned in the Act.
106. No dividend shall bear interest against the Company.
107. Any Annual General Meeting declaring a dividend may make a call on the members of such amount as the meeting fixes, but so that the call on each member shall not exceed the dividend payable to him, and so that the call be made payable at the same time as the dividend, and the dividend if so arranged between the Company and the member be set off against the call. The making of a call under this clause shall be deemed ordinary business of an Ordinary General Meeting, which declares a dividend.
108. All dividends on any share not having a legal registered owner entitled to require payment of and competent to give a valid receipt shall remain in suspense until some competent person be registered as the holder of the share.
109. If shares are issued for the purpose of raising money to defray the expenses of the construction of any work or building or the provision of any plants, which cannot be made profitable for a long period, the board may, on behalf of the Company
- i) Pay interest on so much of that share capital as is for the time being paid up, for the period and subject to the conditions and restrictions mentioned in the Act, and
 - ii) Charge the sum so paid by way of interest on capital as part of the construction of the work or building or the provision of the plant.
110. No dividend shall be payable except in cash, provided that nothing in the foregoing prohibit the capitalization of profits or reserves of the Company for the purpose of issuing fully paid bonus shares or paying up any amount for the time being unpaid on the shares held by the members of the Company.

- 110 (A) Where the company has declared a dividend but which has not been paid or the dividend warrant in respect thereof has not been posted within 30 days from the date of declaration to any shareholder entitled to the payment of the dividend, the Company shall within 7 days from the date of expiry of the said period of 30 days, open a special account on that behalf in any scheduled bank called "Unpaid Dividend Account of Bartronics India Limited" and transfer to the said account, the total amount of dividend which remains unpaid or in relation to which no dividend warrant has been posted.

Any money transferred to the unpaid dividend account of the Company which remains unpaid or unclaimed for a period of Seven years from the date of such transfer, shall be transferred by the company to the 'Investor Education and Protection Fund' established under Sub section (1) of Section 205C of the Companies Act, 1956.

ACCOUNTS

116. Any director or officer or any other person who has given the pledge of secrecy shall be entitled, if he thinks fit, to decline to answer any questions concerning the business of the Company on the ground that the answer to such question could disclose directly or indirectly, the trade secrets of the Company.
117. If the Company shall be wound up and the assets, available for distribution among the members as such, shall be insufficient to repay the whole of the paid up capital, such assets shall be distributed so that, as nearly as may be, the losses shall be borne by the members, in proportion to the capital paid up or which ought to have been paid up, at the commencement of the winding up, on the shares held by them respectively. And if in a winding up, the assets available for distribution among the members, shall be more than sufficient to repay the whole of the capital paid up at the commencement of the winding up, the excess shall be distributed amongst the members in proportion to the capital paid-up which ought to have been paid up at the commencement of the winding up on the shares held by them respectively. But this clause is to be without prejudice to the rights of the holders of shares issued upon special terms and conditions.
118. A) If the Company shall be wound up, the liquidators may, with the sanction of a special resolution of the Company and any other sanction required by the Act, divide amongst the members, in specie or kind, the whole or any part of the assets of the Company, whether they shall consist of property of the same kind or not.
- B) For the purpose aforesaid, the liquidator may set such value as he deems fair upon any property to be divided as aforesaid and may determine how such division shall be carried out as between the members or different classes of members.
- C) The Liquidator may, with the like sanction, vest the whole or any part of such assets in trustees upon such trust for the benefit of the Contributories as the liquidator with the like sanction, shall think fit, but no member shall be compelled to accept any shares or other securities, whereon there is any liability.

INDEMNITY

119. A) Every Director of the Company, Secretary and other officer or employee of the Company shall be indemnified by the Company against, and it shall be the duty of the Directors to pay out of the funds of the Company costs, losses and expenses (including traveling expenses) which any such Director, Officer or Employee may incur or become liable to by reason of any contract entered into or act or deed done by him as such Director, Officer or Servant of the Company in any way in the discharge of his duties.
- B) Every Director, Secretary or other Officer of the Company shall be Indemnified out of the assets of the Company against any liability incurred by him in defending any proceedings whether civil or criminal in which judgment is given in his favour or in which he is acquitted or in connection with any application under the provisions of this Act in which relief is given to him by the court.
120. No Director, Auditor or other Officer of the Company shall be liable for the acts, receipts or defaults of any other Director or Officer, for joining in any receipts or other act for conformity, or for any loss or expenses happening to the Company through the insufficiency or deficiency of title to any property acquired by order of the Directors for and on behalf of the Company or for the insufficiency or deficiency of any security in or upon which any monies of the Company shall be invested, or for any loss or damage arising from the bankruptcy, Insolvency, or tortuous act of any person with whom any moneys, securities, or effects shall be deposited, or for any loss, damage or misfortune occasioned by any error or judgements, commission, default or oversight on his part whatever which shall happen in relation to the execution of the duties of his office or in relation thereto unless the same happens through his own dishonesty.
